

Picture 1. When white ball strikes to the red-striped ball out of blue-striped ball from under, the blue-striped ball doesn't drop immediately but it stays in the air in a moment because of inertia.

Picture 2. ATV tows the sled to junction but the sled don't come directly followed by an atv but it continues straight ahead, because it tries to keep its direction what is caused by inertia.

Picture 3. When rotating the juice in the glass, the juice is trying to maintain its momentum inside of the glass because of inertia.